3. Officers' reports

Chairman's Report Ted Lush

There has been no response from CWaC following TL's contact on any issue raised in the last few months. Four issues are requiring a response: approval of the planned improvements to the toilets, leaking roof, whether the CWaC staff are returning to the other half of the building?, TL's request for last year service charge to be reduced.

TL has mown a path to the pedestrian gate in preparation for the fete to be held on 2nd July.

Treasurer Financial Report Jane Lush

Income includes ticket receipts from film night plus bar takings. We have not been charged by ROW for the film as money is owed to us from films not shown during lockdown.

Total Funds available - £74,762.35

As our deposit account is with Virgin Money that pays out very little interest, it may be moved in the future.

JL has not applied to the Coop for additional funds.

Building Officer Roy Brereton

No change.

RB is waiting for a quote for the Toilet refurbishment plus the go ahead from CWaC.

Booking Secretary/Marketing Sue Hardacre

The Booking report was received from SH.

Uncertainty about opening up from 21st June is causing problems. (Covid 19)

Children's parties among other events are affected, although 1 may be able to go ahead on 27th June as it is a small number and seated.

SH requested help to open and lock up the centre on various dates.
